Welcome to Bogachiel State Park

Bogachiel State Park is a thickly forested camping park on the banks of the Bogachiel River. It is remotely located on the northwestern tip of Washington state. This 123-acre camping park is situated on the tip of the Hoh Rainforest. Lush rainforest terrain is formed from the dense rainfall (140-160 inches per year) that occurs in this region.

Visitors to the park can enjoy a variety of recreation activities, including fishing, wildlife viewing, metal detecting and hiking.
